[Criminal Tribes Act—Registration of Boya Jinka alias Bannikalla of Bannikal village—Thambrahalli station—Report.]

I send herewith a proposal for the registration under the Criminal Tribes Act, of Boya Jinka alias Bannikalla of Bannikal village, Thambrahalli station limits, in Hospet taluk.

He has got four convictions, (1) under section 379, Indian Penal Code, in 1918, (2) under section 110, Criminal Procedure Code, in 1919, (3) under sections 411 and 75, Indian Penal Code, in 1923 and (4) under sections 457, 380 and 75, Indian Penal Code, in 1939 as detailed in statement * II attached.

He became out of view from 25th January 1939 after the commission of the fourth offence, and was subsequently arrested on 30th April 1939. He is a clever, smart and active criminal, under police watch with a history sheet. He has been convicted three times for offences against property. The criminality of this Boya now recommended for registration is proved beyond doubt. In view of his systematic commission of non-bailable offences, it is essential that his movements should be properly and effectively controlled in order to check his criminal activities.

As Boyas in this district have been declared under the Criminal Tribes Act individually by name, a fresh application to Government is now necessary for the registration of this Boya.

The draft though based on precedents is of doubtful legality. Section 3 of the Act provides that if the Provincial Government has reason to believe that any tribe, gang or class of persons, or any part of a tribe, gang or class, is addicted
to the systematic commission of non-bailable offences, it may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare that such tribe, gang or class or, as the case may be, that such part of the tribe, gang or class is a criminal tribe for the purpose of the Act.

criminal tribes was considered by the Government before and it was decided to continue the practice of notifying individual persons as constituting a criminal tribe until objection was taken by the persons affected - see the notes at pages 5-8 of G.O.No. 1029, L., dated 9-5-32. and pages 18-24 of G.O.No. 2708, L., dated 10-12-34. Since then a number of notifications have been issued under section 3 in respect of individuals. This Department need not at this stage take objection to the issue of the notification which is based on precedents.
